

LOSS OF AIRCRAFT CARRIER LEXINGTON REPORTED BY NAVY

SINKING IS DISCLOSED IN COMMUNIQUE

Official Review is Released Regarding the Coral Sea Battle Starting March 10

MOST OF CREW RESCUED

Washington, June 12.—(AP)—The navy announced today the loss of the U. S. aircraft carrier Lexington as a result of the battle of the Coral Sea which prevented the Japanese from either invading or isolating Australia.

The loss was disclosed in connection with an official review of the navy's part in the entire Coral Sea campaign, starting March 10 at New Guinea and running through May 8 when enemy aircraft inflicted such damage on the Lexington, that several hours later she exploded and sank, with a relatively light loss of life.

The Lexington's normal complement was 2,300 men. The navy said 92 per cent of the personnel on board was rescued. The navy communique did not say how many of the Lexington's fighting planes were lost, but officials commented that "obviously planes were lost."

The review showed that the Coral Sea campaign, ending disastrously for the enemy, cost the Japanese more than 15 ships sunk, 2 probably sunk and 20 damaged, the only American losses were the 3,000-ton Lexington, the tanker Neosho and the destroyer Sims.

LOCAL MAN SAFE

In connection with the announcement of the sinking of the Lexington, it was learned here today that Chief Machinist's Mate Louis Gieglisch, formerly of Warren, who was a member of the crew, is safe at his home in Long Beach, Calif.

A large part of the personnel from the Neosho and Sims was rescued and has reached port.

As against these losses which the navy said had been instrumental in disrupting Japan's strategy against Australia, the navy announced the Japanese had suffered:

Sunk: 1 aircraft carrier, 3 heavy cruisers, 1 light cruiser, 2 destroyers, several transports and small supply vessels.

Severely damaged and probably sunk: 1 cruiser, 1 destroyer.

20 ships including 1 aircraft carrier, 2 cruisers, 2 aircraft tenders, 3 destroyers.

The enemy also suffered a loss (Turn to Page Fifteen)

EIGHT ARMY FLIERS ARE KILLED IN CRASH

Sarasota, Fla., June 12.—(P)—Eight army fliers were killed and two injured early today when a four-engine bomber crashed into Sarasota Bay.

Major Gardiner Fiske, Sarasota base intelligence officer, said the heavy ship had cleared the runway on a pre-dawn training flight and went about a mile when it went out of control. It landed on its back in a foot and a half of water about 200 feet from shore and two of the crew were pulled from the wreckage with only minor injuries.

Major Fiske said identities had not been fully established and the crew list was withheld temporarily.

Japs Capture Railroad City

Chungking, June 12.—(P)—The Chinese announced today the loss of Chubien, rail center in western Chekiang province, but claimed recapture of Iwu, on the Chekiang-Kiangsi railway, about halfway between Chubien and Hangchow, northern terminus of the line.

The success of the American volunteer group fighters in shooting down half of a force of 18 Japanese planes early today emphasized the entry of the "Tigers" into the battle of China proper. They are veterans of the battle of Burma and the Burma road.

The Chinese, who estimate that their forces killed or wounded about 20,000 Japanese in the fight for Chubien, said that the loss of the place was somewhat offset by recapture of Iwu, another town on the Chekiang-Kiangsi railway, northeast of Chubien and about half the 160 miles to Hangchow.

(The Japanese announced last Saturday that they had taken Chubien, whose port they regarded as a potential base of Allied attack on Japan. Later the Chinese high command conceded that the airport was lost and that the enemy had penetrated the walls of town, there to be engaged in hand-to-hand fighting.)

Zero Hour Is Believed Near For Russians

German Reported Missing For Great Battle For Industrial City

ASSAULTS ARE REPULSED

By the Associated Press
Marshal Fedor von Bock's armies were reported attacking in a great new battle around Kharkov, the Soviet "Pittsburgh" in the Ukraine, amid indications that zero hour may be near for the long-heralded German summer offensive.

A bulletin from Nazi field headquarters said German troops east of Kharkov had carried out successful attacks which were increasing in volume.

Tersely, the Soviet command acknowledged that the new German drive was making headway against bitter Russian resistance.

"During the day of June 11 in the Kharkov sector, our troops waged fierce defensive engagements against advancing enemy tanks and infantry," a Red army comm. (Turn to Page Eleven)

Hawaiian Air Commander Is Believed Dead

Washington, June 12.—(P)—The war department reported today that Major General Clarence L. Tinker, commander of the Hawaiian air force, was missing after the battle of Midway.

Tinker left Midway June 7 leading a flight of his army bombers to attack the Japanese fleet.

His plane when last seen by men aboard other aircraft in the same formation was descending rapidly towards the sea, the war department said.

TWO ELECTROCUTED IN SING SING CHAIR

Ossining, N. Y., June 12.—(P)—Joseph Riordan and Charles McGale were electrocuted at Sing Sing prison last night, and thus they paid for a prison break on April 14, 1941, that cost four other lives.

During the abortive "crush-out," Keeper John Hartve was shot to death and a prison hospital attendant died of a heart attack brought on by the gunfire; later in a gun battle with Ossining city police, Patrolman James Fagan and John Waters, a third fleeing convict, were slain.

CONTINENTAL INVASION IS CONSIDERED

Sorely Pressed China Watches Anxiously With Press Urging Russia to Strike at Japan

BRITAIN IS OPTIMISTIC

BY ROGER D. GREENE
Associated Press War Editor
Allied capitals rang with speculation today on the prospects of three vast and perhaps imminent developments aimed at the final downfall of Germany and Japan and the shaping of a new world at peace.

While Berlin sounded a new threat of Adolf Hitler's "coming great offensive," the United Nations envisaged:

1. Creation of a second front in Europe in 1942.
2. A possible Russian attack on Japan.
3. The opening of Soviet air bases to American bombers for attacks on Japan.

In Washington, congressional quarters expressed belief that the "full understanding" reached between President Roosevelt and Russia's Foreign Commissar Vyacheslav Molotov might open bases at Vladivostok to U. S. bomber squadrons.

"If the Russians give us the right to use those bases, I feel confident that the United States could bring Japan to her knees in a short time," declared Senator Wheeler (D-Mont.).

Sorely pressed China watched anxiously, with the Chinese press bluntly calling on Russia to strike at Japan now.

In Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's wartime capital at Chungking, the newspaper Ta Kung Pao declared:

"Russia should realize that the Japanese attack on the Aleutians (off Alaska) was a direct threat to Soviet Kamchatka and Siberia. Can Russia stand aside and watch the wildfire spread to her very gates? She must do something and do it quickly."

SECRET SOLVENT IS BLAMED FOR FATALITY

Pittsburgh, June 12.—(P)—Blaming a fatal paint fire on a secret, highly explosive solvent, Public Safety Director George E. A. Fairley urged today that the federal government advise local authorities of the type of chemicals being used in war plants so dangerous fires could be extinguished properly.

A fireman was killed and 25 firemen and spectators were injured by the explosion of a 100-gallon drum of paint drier during a $10,000 fire at the Watson-Standard Paint Co. plant yesterday.

Fairley said the company later disclosed it was carrying on a secret solvent test under government instruction and it had orders not to reveal to anyone the chemicals and materials being used.

416,688 Volunteer Workers in Penn'a

Harrisburg, June 12.—(P)—The State Defense Council reported that Pennsylvania now has 416,688 volunteer air raid wardens and other defense corps workers.

The council listed 136,675 wardens, 54,811 auxiliary firemen, 45,005 auxiliary police, 30,714 emergency medical personnel and 29,966 messengers.

Enrollments of air raid wardens and auxiliary police and firemen have reached requirements, the council said, but other groups still are short of their goals.

The latest number of volunteers was listed by Philadelphia county with 77,536. Others included: Montgomery, 21,925; Delaware, 15,613; Bucks, 11,765; Chester, 7,211; Lehigh, 10,954; Berks, 9,343; Lancaster, 7,410; York, 7,005; Erie, 5,600; and Lycoming, 4,089.

Plans Completed For Annual Flag Day Exercises Sunday

Principal Speaker at Elks' Annual Program to be Senator J. J. Davis

PARADE INFORMATION

A large crowd is expected to be on hand for the annual Flag Day exercises, in charge of officers of the Warren Lodge of Elks, to be held Sunday afternoon at four o'clock from the front of the Elks Lodge Home.

Principal speaker for the occasion will be U. S. Senator James J. Davis, who is coming to Warren in connection with the present Moose convention.

Officers and members of the Western Pennsylvania Moose Association are cooperating with the local Elks lodge in the exercises, and will participate in the patriotic parade, which will precede the program.

Formation of the parade will start shortly before three o'clock and the procession is scheduled to move promptly at 3:30. It will move east in Fourth avenue to Market street, south to Pennsylvania avenue, west to Hickory street and north to the Elks Home, where it will disband.

The exercises following the parade will be in charge of J. J. Baker, exalted ruler of the Warren Lodge of Elks, and other officers.

Music for the occasion will be provided by the various bands which are participating in the parade, with vocal selections by a quartet. The impressive history of the flag will be given by R. W. Mackay, assisted by members of the local unit of the Pennsylvania Reserve Defense Corps.

Members of the quartet are Harold Knappenberger, Robert Dietrich, James Shortt and Norman Shoff, with Loren Wright as accompanist.

Nominees On Program At Cadet Dinner

Pittsburgh, June 12.—(P)—Pennsylvania's gubernatorial nominees—Major General Edward Martin, Republican, and Auditor General F. Clair Ross, Democrat, spoke at an aviation cadet dinner last night—but they didn't discuss politics.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce held the dinner for 87 young western Pennsylvanians who are enlisted as army air force cadets during "Aviation Cadet Week," June 1-7.

Martin said the nation cannot win the war by defending itself. "We must be able to invade our enemy's territory," he said. Ross, a flier in World War I, remarked that men who fought in that war "lost the peace."

During the day, both nominees conferred with county leaders of their respective parties. Martin professed a "hands-off" attitude on the selection of a Republican chairman for Allegheny county.

He was with Judge Ralph H. Smith of Pittsburgh, his leading opponent in the Democratic primary, and the jurist pledged he would support Ross in the November election.

Ross expressed no preference for a Democratic state chairman, to be elected at Harrisburg today. He said "the choice lies between" John F. Breslin, his executive assistant, and a former chairman David L. Lawrence, who has said he did not wish the post.

'Frisco Grets Eight Heroic Army Nurses

San Francisco, June 12.—(P)—Eight of the 85 U. S. Army nurses who worked gallantly at all hours for months during the intense Japanese assault on Bataan peninsula have arrived in San Francisco.

The group included Mary Lohr, of Johnstown, Pa.

They are under treatment at the Letterman hospital as a result of their tortuous experiences, the army disclosed.

Their story, as told to New York Herald Tribune War Correspondent Allen Raymond was one of four months of physical and mental torture, for they worked day and night in the filth and heat of the Philippine jungles, prey to the same perils as the soldiers they served.

Only eight of the little band of 85 nurses stationed at Bataan comprised the group reaching San Francisco and only 14 others have (Turn to Page Eleven)

Reports Filed By Candidates

Harrisburg, June 12.—(P)—Primary campaign expense reports disclosed today that the Martin-for-governor committee spent $15,595 during the successful campaign of Major General Edward Martin, Republican, and that the Harr-for-governor campaign committee disbursed more than $24,000 in behalf of Luther A. Harr, defeated Democrat.

The Democratic group listed $21,395 receipts, $21,375 expenses and $2,928 unpaid obligations. The Martin-for-governor finance committee said its expenses balanced receipts. The deadline for filing reports is midnight, Thursday, June 18.

Harr was defeated in a three-way Democratic contest by Auditor General F. Clair Ross.

The lawyers committee for Allen M. Scarne, successful Republican candidate for supreme court, reported $6,316 receipts and $3,060 expenses.

RECORD TAX PROGRAM IS UNDER STUDY

Set-up Approved by Ways And Means Committee To Provide Billions in New Levies

SMOKES TO BE BOOSTED

BY DONALD A. YOUNG
Washington, June 12.—(P)—A record-breaking $6,000,000,000 program of new taxes has been approved tentatively by the house ways and means committee, with the prospect that more millions—perhaps billions—would be added before legislation reaches the house.

A tabulation today showed that the committee, approaching the end of a study of the administration's request for $8,700,000,000 in additional revenue already had agreed upon $8,087,000,000, with votes remaining only on a few minor excise taxes.

The committee yesterday voted to double the present 5 per cent tax on fares paid for transportation; to raise the tax on a package of cigarettes from 6 1/2 to 7 cents; to increase the present cigar tax materially; to add 6 cents to the present 18-cent-pound smoking tobacco tax, and to jump the cigarette paper and tube levy to 1/2 cent on each package of 25.

dispose of a few other excise items they will face the question of stopping there or proceeding to consideration of a sales tax to bring billions of dollars more into the treasury to help finance the war and control inflation. It has been estimated that a 5 per cent retail sales tax would raise $2,500,000,000.

As the committee took up a discussion of taxes on soft drinks, photographic equipment, transportation by pipe line and telephonic and telegraphic communications, its accomplished work shaped up this way:

Individual taxes, $2,750,000,000; corporation taxes, $2,500,000,000; mandatory joint returns by husbands and wives, $350,000,000; excise taxes, $487,000,000.

Breaking a two-day impasse over the controversial question of tobacco taxes, the committee began moving more rapidly yesterday with votes on five excises.

Should all the other excises be approved as the treasury recommended, the committee still would be about $2,400,000,000 short of the treasury's goal.

Death Penalty Is Waived In Trial of Boy

Pittsburgh, June 12.—(P)—Assistant District Attorney Jacob Kallman said he would ask a jury today for "a verdict in accordance with the evidence" without demanding the death penalty for Vincent James Rocco, 14, on trial for murder in the slaying of his nine-year-old sister, Marie.

Defense counsel Louis Little said he would seek outright acquittal for the boy, who testified yesterday he did not recall shooting his sleeping sister last March 15. Two psychiatrists testified for the defense that Vincent's actions resulted from psychic epilepsy, a nervous disease characterized by blind excitement or by automatic acts.

Following the closing arguments and the charge of Judge J. Frank Graff, the case was expected to reach the jury of seven women and five men today.

MACARTHUR WILL BE HONORED SATURDAY

Washington, June 12.—(P)—President Roosevelt told a press conference today he had signed legislation making tomorrow MacArthur Day in honor of the United Nations commander in the southwestern Pacific theatre of war.

Asked his view on the general principle of honoring a living hero, Mr. Roosevelt replied that he thought it was a good thing occasionally. He added that he was receiving tomorrow 15 living heroes and he thought that was much better than seeing dead ones.

Scrap Rubber Drive to Start Next Monday Morning at 12

Washington, June 12.—(P)—President Roosevelt announced today an intensive campaign for collecting of the nation's old scrap rubber supply would start June 15 and last through June 30.

Individuals were urged by the chief executive to search their basements, attics and back yards for all items of rubber that have been discarded or can be discarded.

Through arrangements with the oil industry 400,000 filling stations will serve as collection depots. They will pay one cent a pound for the rubber brought in, and the government will reimburse them that sum.

President Roosevelt, declaring that the rubber situation was extremely serious, again urged the people to cut down on pleasure driving and reduce both automobile speed and mileage.

He told a press conference he had no idea when a person with four tires might be able to get new ones. It may be a long, long time, he said.

The collection drive will be inaugurated at 12:01 a. m., on Monday, June 15 and concluded at midnight on Tuesday, June 30. Thus it will last through 16 full days. Actually, the president will start it off informally with a five minute radio talk tonight at 6:45 o'clock, Eastern War Time.

Pittsburgh, June 12.—(P)—John H. Donahue, president of the Associated Gasoline Dealers, Inc., and the Pennsylvania Dealers' Association, pledged today the support of filling station operators in the state to the scrap rubber collection drive.

Dive Bombers Tell of Raids On Jap Bases

Pointing to the grave responsibilities facing members of the organization in the present war conditions, Burgess Steber, W. Steber officially welcomed delegates and visitors to the sixth annual convention of the Western Pennsylvania Moose Association, at the opening session held this morning in the State Armory.

Burgess Steber, for whom the large convention class being initiated tonight, has been named, was presented to the visitors by F. E. M. Pierotti, of Kane, president of the association.

Response to the welcome was made by Leo W. Ryan, of Bradford, supreme councilman of the Loyal Order of Moose.

Other speakers at this morning's session included Past Supreme Governor B. Marshall Ewing, of Uniontown, who served as head of the order in 1908, and Albert H. Lader, Jr., prominent Philadelphia attorney who is general counsel for the order.

In his address, Burgess Steber called attention to the growing responsibilities of members of the order with the increasing strength of numbers. He spoke of the part which they must play in the present crisis and urged them to see to it that "when this war is over and peace again comes to us, we shall have won it in order and this sacrifice shall not again have been in vain."

Among recent arrivals at the convention are Gov. Mathew M. Neely, of West Virginia, supreme governor of the Loyal Order of Moose, and Paul P. Schmitz, of Mooseheart, director of enrollment, U. S. Senator James J. Davis, founder and director general, is expected to arrive early tomorrow morning and will remain until Sunday, June 20. His supreme secretary, is expected later (Turn to Page Eleven)

WPA Measure In the Senate

Washington, June 12.—(P)—$326,000,000 appropriation bill to continue the WPA on a war-curtailled basis was sent to the senate today after the relief agency survived a desperate drive in the house to abolish it.

Fear less than the $2,230,000,000 authorized which provided work for 3,000,000 jobs in the agency's peak year of 1939, the new supply bill carried funds sufficient to employ an average of 400,000 a month beginning July 1.

An acrimonious, two-day floor battle saw a Republican-sponsored attempt to cut the allocation by one-third and place supervision of relief directly with the states go down to defeat on a roll call vote of 183 to 140.

Only a few minutes earlier, administration forces had beaten back, 184 to 133, a move to prevent the WPA from starting any new projects except those certified as essential by the secretary of war, secretary of navy, or the maritime commission chairman.

A fight to abolish the WPA altogether on the ground that it no longer was necessary because of the war's stimulus to industry, was lost by a tellers' vote of 109 to 60.

Physician At North Warren Has Resigned

Dr. Jane E. Dunaway, member of the medical staff at the Warren State Hospital for the past 14 years, has tendered her resignation and left yesterday for Oakland, Calif., where she will care for a sister who is ill.

The popular doctor has been active in affairs of the Warren County Medical Society and its Women's Auxiliary, a member of the Warren County Girl Scout Council, an able instructor in Red Cross first aid classes, member of the Woman's Club and Warren Concert Association and much in demand as a speaker before various groups and clubs.

She was also sponsor for the patients' "21 Club" at the state institution and was complimented by that group at a farewell tea, with a program of entertainment and many farewell gifts.

Others at the state hospital, including staff members and their wives, nurses and others have entertained at dinners and teas in the past few days.

At the Theatres

FILM LAUDS MARINE CORPS "TO THE SHORES OF TRIPOLI" STARS PAYNE, O'HARA, SCOTT

As timely and as thrilling a subject for a movie as you'll ever want to see is the plot basis for 20th Century-Fox's Technicolor production "To The Shores Of Tripoli" which is scheduled to open on Sunday, Monday, Tuesday at the Library Theatre.

Taking a raw recruit in the person of John Payne, the film puts him through all of the paces which the U. S. Marine undergoes to emerge as a fighting "leatherneck." For romantic interest, none other than beautiful Maureen O'Hara in the role of a Marine nurse was selected to provide the love interest with handsome Payne. And Randolph Scott is said to turn in one of the top performances of his career as the hard-boiled sergeant who makes life both interesting and miserable for Payne.

The cast was selected with care and boasts the talents of such outstanding players as Nancy Kelly, William Tracy, Maxie Rosenbloom (for laughs), Henry Morgan, Edmund MacDonald, Russell Hicks, and Minor Watson.

The United States, during the first half of 1940, imported 107,039 pounds of geranium oil.

NOTES ON THE MOOSE PARADE

The committee in charge of tomorrow's parade reported today that everything is in readiness for an outstanding procession. Complete parade orders will be found elsewhere in this issue.

Most of the bands and drum corps coming here tomorrow will have dressing rooms at the high school. However, the Erie Elks' Girls' Drum Corps will meet at the local Elks Home, while the three Moose bands will have dressing rooms at the Library theatre.

Members of Chief Cornplanter Post, No. 135, American Legion, their Auxiliary and Sons and Daughters of the Legion will assemble at the Legion Home between 3 and 3:30 Saturday to take part in the parade.

Director Harry A. Summers asks that all Dragon Band members meet with him at Beaty school at 2:30 p. m. Saturday in preparation for the Moose convention parade.

Officers and distinguished visitors will view the parade from a stand to be erected just east of the Bell Telephone building at East street and Pennsylvania avenue. The marshal, adjutant and aides will review the procession in Third avenue, just east of the bridge.

Owners of local service stations again remind motorists that they should plan to buy their gasoline before the parade, rather than attempt to get into the stations afterward. The stations will close as usual at seven o'clock, and will be closed on Sunday.

In order to handle the large crowd which is expected here tomorrow, Police Chief George Heahn has employed eight extra policemen, while state motor police report three additional officers here for the convention.

Those in charge of the parade have requested that all those in charge of marching delegations and other units have their groups at the place of formation at three o'clock tomorrow afternoon, so that the parade may move promptly at four o'clock.

Cooperation of motorists in refraining from parking on Crescent, Jackson and Third streets during the time of the parade has been requested by the committee. All are narrow streets and parking would hamper the parade.

All Legionnaires participating in the parade, either as aides or in the Legion marching delegations, are requested to wear their caps.

OLD GLORY

Sunday is Flag Day with the annual community observance being scheduled for four o'clock at the Elks Club.

Today, with America fighting to maintain her heritage of freedom, it is vitally important that all of us—every man and woman, boy and girl—know how to render the emblem the respect that it is due.

Gridley Adams, chairman of the National Flag Code committee, reminds that the Flag is not just a piece of bright material. It is the symbol of a great nation, just as the cross is the symbol of a great faith. The Flag is the symbol of mankind's highest and noblest aspirations, it deserves to be displayed correctly and—daily. To this end Mr. Adams offers the following advice:

The United States Flag is very proud of its supremacy and what that supremacy stands for. The blue and starry canton (the Union) of the Flag is its honor point, and always is shown at the flag's own right hand corner, when displayed other than on its staff, and when hung either horizontally or vertically.

The Flag should always be carried, or positioned, at the right hand of persons or objects—the "Military right of line"—and all other flags at the left hand of persons or objects.

On platforms, or in the channels of churches, the Flag (one alone) should always be on its staff at the speaker's right hand, and slightly in front of the speaker.

Never cross two U. S. flags against a wall. To do so makes one of them point to its left or "minister"—traditionally the cowardly direction.

One Flag alone is majestic; more than one is decoration. The Flag is never decoration. For festooning, draping, and decoration is general, use bunting, especially designed for the purpose. When using bunting always have the blue stripe at the top, as do the WPA signs, airmail boxes and the like. Correctly, the colors go "Blue, White and Red."

The Flag should never trail in the water. It is never laid flat upon tables, desks, and the like. The only exception is when it covers the casket of one who has served in some armed service of our Government. At such time, from the standpoint of on-lookers, it is "reversed," but to the deceased it is not reversed.

The Flag should be half-staffed only for persons who have once offered their lives that it may never be hauled down by a foe, never for any other person except by Presidential authority.

If the deceased is either a State or City official, then the State or the City's flag is the proper one to half-staff. Similarly if the deceased is a member of a fraternal organization or a club.

Thousands of automobiles carry a small, metal Flag on the rear license plate. Little do their owners realize that the Flag never trails anything; its position is always at the very front.

Never use the Flag as the covering or unveiling material when dedicating a tablet or monument.

The Flag in the form of a jeweled pin should never be worn as an ornament, but only as a badge to proudly indicate one's allegiance to that country to which he or she owes so much.

Soldiers, sailors, firemen and policemen when on duty are not allowed to remove their headgear, as such bears a part of the insignia of their authority, and to remove same would remove part of such authority. So in saluting the Flag they merely touch the brim of their headgear with their fingertips, as much as to say: "I'm doing the next best thing."

WELCOME, MOOSE!

It is our happy privilege to extend, on behalf of the community of Warren, a cordial welcome to the delegates and other visitors who are guests of the borough in connection with the annual convention of the Western Pennsylvania Moose Association.

It is a rare honor that comes to any town to play host to such a gathering and we can assure our guests that citizens of Warren are anxious that this convention will be remembered as one of the most successful and enjoyable ever experienced by the association.

Get ready to do a little more rummaging around in the attic and cellar—the scrap rubber salvage drive starts Monday!

Don't forget, the flag should be displayed both tomorrow and Sunday!

The trouble with doing as you please is that often you aren't pleased with what you do.

Much worse than the auto that won't start is the one that won't stop—at the right time.

Warm, isn't it?

WASHINGTON IN WARTIME

(Second of Two Articles)
By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—"En Guardia," the big, slick-paper, illustrated monthly magazine, and "The American News Letter," a four-page twice monthly offshoot, both published by the government and circulated in Latin America without charge, have the laudable ambition of giving our sister republics to the south a better understanding of Uncle Sam and his all-out efforts in World War II.

Are they succeeding? That's a question for historians, but if popularity, measured by demand for both publications is any criterion, the answer is already here.

"EN GUARDIA" published in Portuguese for Brazil and in Spanish for the rest of the Latin-American republics, is a 40-page magazine (no advertising). It contains some black and white and color photography that is as beautiful and dramatic as anything seen in this country's most expensive "slicks."

I have talked to the men behind the idea, its editors and its authors. Its dominant objective and almost its only one is to give to the Hemisphere a clear picture of the United States at war. This doesn't mean merely in a military sense. It means the life and spirit of the people of the E.U.A., as we are known down there, as well as the accomplishments of our armed forces and the industries behind them.

It means stories about our farms and dairies, our blood banks, our schools and religion and culture, as well as the building and piloting of our Flying Fortresses, the training of our paratroops, the expansion of the Navy, and the assembly-line construction of tanks.

Stories on Army nurses and the chaplains who bring religion to the firing lines have been as prominently displayed as those on our mosquito fleet and our soldiers who are learning to fight in the snow.

NO ISSUE is without several pieces on the other American nations at war. The latest issue will have as its lead article a spread on Mexico.

A forthcoming number will devote a great deal of space on the pattern of a post-war world and what the western hemisphere can look forward to in economy and practice of the Four Freedoms. Conceived and sponsored, financially and in spirit, by Nelson Rockefeller's office of Inter-American Affairs, "En Guardia" makes no pretense to being anything else. Every number carries prominently somewhere the announcement that it is published monthly by La Oficina del Coordinador de Asuntos Interamericanos.

The "News-Letter" is simply a smaller, more timely analysis of the same things. Propaganda? Certainly. But not the Axis kind. Wee be the day when the editors of "En Guardia" get caught in a lie—and they know it.

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—What's cooking around town? ... Here's what's cooking, chum, ...

Titles are beginning to reflect the tension and the uncertainties of the times. ... They are reminiscent of those thrillers that used to lift the hackles on the back of your neck during the early Twenties. ... Like "The Cat and the Canary" and "The Bat" and "Dracula." ... We have another one in store. ... It'll be here next week. ... It bows in under the title of "The Cat Screams." ... Nor is that all. ... Only a few days ago a new book was published under the title of "How To Cook A Wolf." ... But this wasn't a murder mystery. ... It was a chef's guide on how to prepare favorite dishes.

WHAT'S cooking, you ask? ... Well, Tallulah Bankhead is suing a publicity firm for $50,000 because of certain stories that firm released. ... Don Weissmuller, who is Tarzan's nephew, is dancing at Leon & Eddie's in 52nd street. ... Tom Dempsey, Jack's brother, has become the manager of Jack's restaurant on Broadway. ... A Russian edition of Ambassador Davies' "Mission to Moscow" has been printed and will be distributed through the Red Army. ... Alexander Woolcott remains a gravely ill man and he has returned to his Vermont home, on Lake Bomoseen. ... Suzanne Silvercray, the sculptress, has gone to Dayton, Ohio, to be near her husband, Capt.

E. F. Stevenson, assigned to the Training Film Production Laboratories at Wright Field. ... That fight between two brothers who are rival band leaders was nothing new. ... They've been fighting for years. ... This particular scrap took place at 3 a.m. at one of the Broadway roof openings. ... Most of the guests had gone home. ... Though they have slugged it out often, there has never been a decision. ... Neither, apparently, can whip the other.

THIS, too, is cooking. ... Those patient, dignified, elderly, straight-backed old men who operate two-wheel, horse-drawn hacks in the vicinity of the Park aren't reaping any harvest, despite the rationing on gasoline. ... Their cabs, strictly on the antique side, are for larks. ... It's a gag to hop into one and go clattering through the Park or down 5th avenue, gravely lifting your hat to everyone you pass in the best 1890 tradition. ... But people who need gas still find these hacks too slow for business appointments. ... The old men tell me theirs is one of the few unchanging businesses that almost never reflect the times. ... They stand at the heads of their horses like lonely sentinels, waiting for the fare that, sooner or later, comes along. ... But as for a rush, there isn't any rush, never has been, probably never will be. ... I can't ever remember seeing all the hacks out on call at the same time.

HOLLYWOOD SIGHTS AND SOUNDS

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD — Miss Judy Garland, practically out of her teens, was moved today to look back down the long corridor of the years and reminisce. She had ample urging. Her new movie, "Me and My Gal," is a yarn about vaudeville when there was a Palace and all vaudevillians dreamed of playing it. Judy herself is a veteran vaudevillian of the later days when all of them dreamed of playing Grauman's Chinese—and wowing the movies. Judy was two years old when the Gumm Sisters initiated a new member in their song-and-dance act. She was 13 when, with the other Gumm Sisters married and retired, and Judy carrying on alone, she was picked up by the movies. HER first picture was that famous short of Metro's—the one in which two little girls named Garland and Durbin showed off their voices, after which Miss Durbin was dropped and Miss Garland kept on the payroll in a small way. Then Miss Garland was loaned to 20th to play a raucous little girl in pigtails for "Pigskin Parade," thus beginning her own pigtail parade. Miss Garland in due course attended the preview, and cried for three days. "I'd always imagined that anybody in pictures automatically became glamorous," she recalled, looking very glum in a 1917 evening gown and hair-do for the picture. "But I wasn't." So she cried for three days, one day more than she cried when a reviewer covering the Gumm act described Judy as a leather-lunged singer who sang "Stormy Weather" and inspired in the listener a fervent hope that the thunder would drown her out. THEN there was the time the Gumm, motoring from stand to stand, settled down at the Chicago Century of Progress exposition and, by dint of warbling and stepping and hoarding the proceeds for weeks, bought a complete new set of costumes; four outfits for each of the three girls, four "changes" for their mother-accompanist. They headed west for Hollywood and the Chinese, their new wardrobe in a trunk strapped to the rear bumper. Somewhere outside St. Joseph, Mo., that trunk—not the other one containing "junk"—was lifted. The act got to Hollywood and bought four sweaters-and-skirt sets. But Judy is a glam-gal now. In this picture she has eleven costumes, nine evening gowns, eight suits and five coats. She has 19 different hair-dos. Fun, Judy? "Of course I like it. But why did I complain before? It used to be I could run into the wardrobe department, try on a gingham frock, and that was that. Now it's hours of fittings. And two hours earlier in make-up. And I have to guard against picking up new freckles, and I can't go bowling—no broken finger nails for me until the picture's over. I guess I never really appreciated those pigtail parts."

Church Meet At Jamestown Ends Sunday

The closing meeting of the Augustana Synod convention now in session in the First Lutheran church at Jamestown, N. Y., will be held at 3:30 p. m. Sunday, when 20 young men, graduates of Augustana Seminary at Rock Island, Ill., will be ordained to the holy ministry. Dr. P. O. Bersell, of Minneapolis, Minn., will conduct this impressive ceremony as president of synod, with the assistance of members of the ministry.

Augustana Synod Brotherhood closes its sessions Saturday with a banquet in the Hotel Jamestown at 6:30 p. m., when Major Chaplain N. M. Ylvisaker, director of the service commission, National Lutheran Council, and president of the Army and Navy Chaplains' Association, will be guest speaker. His theme will be "Religion in the Army."

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of Synod will conclude with a jubilee victory banquet at the same hour in the First Lutheran church.

Rev. O. E. Olmon, delegate to synod from the Minnesota Conference, whose home is in Bernadotte, Minn., will occupy the pulpit in St. Paul's Lutheran church for the 10:30 a. m. service Sunday. His topic will be "Unconditional Surrender."

Capital Gossip

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON — One of the mysteries of the war effort, even to some of the most observant veterans on the capital scene, has been the many, many contradictions in official statements on almost every phase of defense.

It started as far back as the first gasoline rationing threat on the eastern seaboard, when it involved available tank cars, tankers, gasoline stocks and consumption, and a good many other statistics that Americans have prided themselves on having so accurately at their fingertips that any sophomore economist or engineering student could add them up and get the right answer.

IT SPREAD to the shipbuilding program and the possible conversion of the automobile industry to war production. For more than a year, this wildfire of contradiction has run amok in the aluminum and rubber production possibilities.

In recent weeks the President has intimated that some solution to the tire problem may be worked out before we are reduced to running on our rims. A New Jersey manufacturer testified before a congressional committee that he had a formula for making all the recapped tires necessary to keep all the cars in the country rolling and that formula would need only reclaimed rubber and two ounces per tire of natural rubber. Other high government officials in position to know declare that only nation-wide gas rationing will save us from a tire shortage disaster.

A friend of mine, a Washington newspaper man, wrote a book called "Confusion on the Potomac." It was published three days before Pearl Harbor. It contained political viewpoints that made it unpopular after Pearl Harbor.

He should have scrapped the book, saved the title, and written under it the mass of conflicting statements that have been issued from the offices of official Washington since the national defense effort really got under way.

THOUSANDS of bewildered citizens are asking: what is behind it all? I have talked to dozens of government officials and observers, some of them guilty of contributing to these very confusions. None, perhaps, has been able to give the whole answer, but the sum of their observations certainly is part of it.

In the first place, statistical information which used to be available to the whole world is now restricted and for military reasons can not be given even to all those officials whose departments are interested.

A man who can't get hold of all the details on next weekend weather, even though his business depends greatly on it, is going to have to rely some on his corns or that old wound on the shinbone. To some extent, that is how it has had to be with some government officials.

In the second place, the war, production, shortages, diplomacy and a good many other things have developed too fast for even the heartiest mental digestion. Today's truths become tomorrow's errors.

No democracy has ever moved as fast as the United States is moving today. It may have to be a miracle if such movement didn't create contradictions.

War Savings Bonds and Stamps

★ Too many of us have long taken our flag too much for granted! These are times in which its true significance and all the freedom, spirit, faith and hope for mankind it symbolizes must stand clear in our minds, as reaffirmation of all that we are fighting for; and of the worthwhileness of our fighting to the last fibre of our being.

★ Keep it flying! Brave red, gallant blue, unsullied white! Keep it flying—the flag of America's frontiersmen; the flag of 165 years of pioneers in the name of liberty; the flag of America—for freedom—forever!

★ Keep it flying! There's only one way! And that is by keeping on buying the War Savings Bonds and Stamps which can supply the funds which can supply our fighting men with every piece of equipment and every item of apparel they need—fast—in order to win this war!

OBSERVE FLAG DAY, JUNE 14th, by making another purchase of a United States War Savings Bond, and by starting a new book of United States War Savings Stamps! Every man, woman and child who knows the story of our flag—and the constant struggle for liberty which it represents—must realize that if that same liberty is to be ours in the future . . . if its benefits are to shine on all the people of all the world, NOW—not later—is the time to KEEP ON BUYING the War Bonds and Stamps that will guarantee the United Nations winning this War of Survival!

Legion Will Take Part In Huge Parade

Members of Chief Cornplanter Post, No. 135, American Legion, will meet at the Legion Home tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock to take part in the patriotic and fraternal parade being sponsored by the Loyal Order of Moose. The units will be prepared to leave the Legion Home by 3:30 to march to their position; heading Division 6, which forms at Fourth and Poplar street.

Commander William I. Walker asks that all members of the Legion, the Auxiliary and the Sons and Daughters of the Legion be on hand at the home promptly at 3; or, if delayed, to come directly to the corner of Fourth and Poplar by 3:45.

The 6th Division which will comprise mostly Legion units will be led by Melvin G. Keller as division chief, Ralph Brasington as assistant chief. The Warren Civil Air Patrol and twenty-five members of the Many Trails Riding Club, on horse back, will form part of this division.

Some 40 members of Chief Cornplanter Post will be on duty at other points in the parade and Commander Walker and other officers are especially desirous of getting a good marching delegation from the remainder of the post and their auxiliaries.

Members who plan to take part in the parade are reminded that in case of heavy showers around 3:30 the parade will simply be postponed a few hours, but will be run off as scheduled at this later hour in the day.

Young People Give Excellent Recital

A large audience assembled last evening in Founders Hall of the First Methodist church to hear a joint piano and violin recital by Miss Meredith Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Young, East street, and James Shortt, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Shortt, East Third avenue.

The young people presented a program of considerable difficulty in a style clearly indicating a fine sense of musicianship. Each musician was recalled by the applause of an appreciative audience of music lovers and real pleasure was afforded by the event.

Miss Eleanor Klinefelter was at the second piano for two movements of the Grieg B flat minor Concerto played by Miss Young.

Dr. LeRoy B. Campbell and Philip Santoro, teachers of the young musicians are to be congratulated on the fine performance of their students.

Piano Students of Mrs. Louise Bailey In Closing Recital

Pupils from the piano classes of Mrs. Louise Bailey were heard last night at the Philomel Club in a recital in which the outstanding requirements of good musicianship were manifested through performance of the young musicians, whose ages ranged from five to 18 years.

Compositions from the old masters, as well as the modern writers, included, in accordance with the spirit of the times, a number of well known patriotic and traditional airs arranged attractively for piano.

Warren

Warren Miller, David Geer, Richard Grubbs, Ruth Miller, Jean Curtin, Helen Confer and Marjorie Hoyer received their certificates of graduation from the eighth grade at the Washington School exercises held at the High School auditorium, Monday evening. Our local schools and the members of the P. T. A. enjoyed a picnic at Ludlow Park, Wednesday. A feature of the dinner was a lovely birthday cake, baked by Mrs. Geo. Christian and complimenting Miss Irene Marshall.

The trustees of the Barnes Cemetery have decided that only those who pay their dues into the association will have their lots cared for in the local cemetery, so it was impossible for the cemetery to be as beautiful as in former years. The members of the Frank M. Glendinning Post, American Legion, Boy Scouts and Firemen held their ritualistic exercises there in the morning.

C. L. Brown, who is employed at Mayburg, called on old friends and neighbors in town, Wednesday afternoon. We are very glad to report that Mrs. Brown continues to improve. She expects to be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Lewis Elder in Warren this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ganoe and son, Curtis, of Clarendon, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Cook, Sunday.
Mrs. A. L. Barr drove up from Oil City, Thursday and Mrs. Bert R. Hoyer accompanied her home for the summer vacation.

The Misses Myra and Mable Hoover and Mrs. Clara Covert and son, Richard, of Butler were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hoyer, Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Axel Hanson of Ellikland were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Burns and Mr. and Mrs. George Conquer Friday and Saturday.

The Women's Society for Christian Service and the adult Bible class of the Methodist church jointly sponsored a rummage sale in the church basement, Thursday. Many nice articles were on sale and the ladies realized over fifty dollars for their efforts.

Mrs. George Christian is ill at her home of measles.

Mr. and Mrs. George Conquer and son, Raymond, and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Burns spent the weekend as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Loveland in Corry. En route, they visited the cemetery at Garland.

On Saturday Program

MALCOLM R. GILES

PAUL P. SCHMITZ

Pictured above are two of the outstanding officers of the Loyal Order of Moose, who are scheduled to speak at Saturday meetings of the Western Pennsylvania Moose Association convention. Giles is supreme secretary of the order and Schmitz is membership enrollment director.

Parade Saturday To Be Feature of Week-end Program

(From Page One)

According to Wendell Lehnerd, of Butler, secretary of the western Pennsylvania Moose Association, approximately one hundred regular delegates from the 127 lodges in the association had been registered prior to this morning's session. Visitors swelled the total to an estimated 2,000 persons, with many more expected tonight and tomorrow.

Two cities are being mentioned for next year's convention—Sharon and Uniontown. Both have many supporters among delegates, it was indicated.

Likewise, several persons are being mentioned for the various offices of the association and a session of the nominating committee was held following this morning's convention meeting.

At this afternoon's session, speakers listed are Raymond Hagerman, deputy supreme governor; John J. Silk, of Erie, Moosehaven governor, and Attorney Lader.

One of the outstanding features of the convention will take place this evening at eight o'clock when the largest convention class in the history of the Moose in Pennsylvania will be initiated at the State Armory. There are 350 candidates in this class, to be inducted into Warren Lodge by the crack Erie degree team.

Principal speaker for the occasion will be Gov. Matthew M. Neely, of West Virginia, supreme governor of the Moose.

Another highlight of the convention will be the Pilgrim Fellowship breakfast tomorrow morning at the Y. W. C. A. and the conferring of the Fellowship degree at the Conewago Club afterward, Malcolm R. Giles, supreme secretary of the order, and U. S. Senator James J. Davis will be in charge of this program.

Following a convention session at 11 o'clock there will be a luncheon at the Y. M. C. A. for lodge and association officers, at which time the enrollment director, will be the speakers.

As far as the public is concerned, one of the biggest events of the entire convention will be the parade tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock. Including a host of bands, floats and marching delegations, this promises to be one of the best parades ever seen here. The complete parade formation is outlined in this issue.

The Mooseheart Alumni banquet will be held at the Woman's Club at 6:30 o'clock, with members of the Women of the Moose in attendance.

Special religious services are scheduled for Sunday morning. There will be mass at St. Joseph's church for those desiring to attend. At the First Baptist church the speaker will be Senator Davis.

Closing session of the convention is scheduled for one o'clock Sunday afternoon, at which time officers of the association will be elected and the installation conducted by Senator Davis.

As their final event, the members of the Moose will join with the Warren Lodge of Elks in the latter organization's annual Flag Day observance. Principal speaker for this event also is Senator Davis.

Throughout today, ritualistic teams of the association are participating in the annual degree team competition. This is being held in the post rooms of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The women's portion of the convention, the Western Pennsylvania Conference on Chapter Development, opened with the dinner at the Woman's Club Saturday evening.

On Sunday, morning and afternoon sessions will be held in the Elks Home. The program opens at 11 o'clock with a recorders' and auditing committees' session, at which Lena P. Black, of New Kensington, will preside.

A seminar on the conference theme, "Vitality for Victory," will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday, at this meeting, Mary Galvin, associate regent, "College of Regents," will preside. The guests will be welcomed by Hilda Anderson, of Warren, with response by Mae Yockey, of Vandergrift. Several talks are on the program, which also includes initiation in charge of the Duquesne members.

If a driver has used up his entire ration, he can expect no additional supplies—except in an emergency—until July 1. He must apply to his local ration board and pass the usual tests for supplemental rations sufficient to tide him over the July 1-15 gap.

No dates have been set for the new registration, when all passenger car drivers will be issued a basic "A" book containing 48 coupons.

Soldier Pay Bill Goes To White House

Washington, June 12.—(P)—The controversial $30-a-month minimum service pay bill out of the way, senate and house conferees sought an agreement today on a companion measure providing for financial aid to dependents of fighting men.

The pay bill went to the White House late yesterday after the senate passed a compromise proposal ending a long battle over whether the base minimum pay should be $50 or $42 monthly instead of the present $30 for men with four months of service. Both branches finally agreed unanimously on the higher figure.

Still in controversy was a clause in the allotment and allowance bill under which men with dependents would be given draft classification and deferment based on the number of their dependents and their family status.

The two branches were in virtual agreement on pay provisions, under which part of a service man's monthly wage would be withheld and together with a government allowance, given to his dependents.

The deferment provision, placed in the bill in the senate, was omitted from the house version after military affairs committee members said they had not had an opportunity to study it.

SPORTS SPATTERINGS

The Forge-Hospital encounter Wednesday night marked the first time in the long rivalry of these two clubs that they have met to settle a contest on Russell Field. They've played at Wilder Field and at North Warren, but never before in Warren's own park. The fans liked the show which was another nearly as good as the Monday night opener. And anyone feeling that tonight's contest isn't going to be worth seeing, had better take a second look at Monday's box score. Stoneham has pitching power available and can think of no better way of disposing of it than to use the mound corps whenever the occasion arises. This corner's not so sure the Forge could fool around with little, but mighty Craig Bennett, who won himself a host of baseball fans in Monday's game. If the Sunset League of 1942 does nothing more, it's certain to uncover plenty of young talent which it would be well for some major league scouts to look over during the campaign. Interest hasn't been as high in the loop in a long, long time as it is already this year. Perhaps that's due partially to the lapse between the last circuit and this year's wheel, but the two ball games to date have been better than average. In comparison we give you the Oil City-Butler melee Wednesday night which ended 19-10 in favor of the latter outfit. The Oilers committed nine misplays. The Yankees had one error. There have been 46 strikeouts in two games in the Sunset League to date, an average of 23 per game, which is really whiffing 'em. And it looks like pitching is going to dominate the loop for some time, yet.

Joe Massa's duplication of Red Hajnik's home run Wednesday evening made Red move over on the hero's bench. It saved the Hospital from the embarrassing situation caused by a shutout. And was Caffery surprised. The Forge was the first team in the league to go through a ball game without committing an error, and deserve special mention for this. All in all, the fielding has been really outstanding. Seven errors have been recorded in the two encounters by the boards, and that isn't a large number. The return meeting to play off their Monday night tie between the Eagles and Stoneham, now scheduled for next Tuesday evening, should bring the fans out in droves. These two clubs are so evenly matched they should give a special treat every time. For the second week in a row it's been necessary to postpone the ball game carded for Wilder Field. This is a good way to lose the faith of ball fans, but there's been little Business Manager Jimmy Kamen could say or do about this week or last week's procedure. In a couple of weeks, or maybe in less time than that, all of you Sunset League fans will be invited to vote for your favorite player in the circuit and after the balloting a special night will be staged at which time an award will be made to the player, and a gala celebration will climax the event, if plans now under way by the executive committee materialize. Things of this sort add interest to any league, so you might start looking these boys over carefully before doing your voting when the time comes for it.

S-W DEFEATS Three Tie In CASEYS, 7-5, 2nd Calcutta Event At Club IN SOFTBALL

Three club golfers tied for honors in the second Calcutta tournament at the Conewag Valley Country Club, held yesterday, splitting the prize award. H. A. Cray, Chuck Blackman, and Allan Branch ended up with a tie of 36s. Cray posted a score of 44, Blackman 45, and Branch 46. Fred DeMille, who was up to no good, accused Ruby, who lowered her voice, "You don't happen to know where Laura is now, do you?" The winners were awarded by Harry Bittenbender, Charley Hubbard and Ralph Ruggaber, respectively. Play also started at the club in the 35-hole medal play tournament which is scheduled to end on Sunday. Not enough players toured the course to give any single golfer a clean-cut lead in the early round up to today.

Struthers-Wells added new interest to the City Softball League last night with a 7-5 triumph over the Caseys on the west side diamond before the latter outfit was done shouting in joy for their victory Wednesday evening which ended a winning streak of 6 games for the Recreation Center. The defense workers scored five runs in the first four frames, one each in the first, second and third, and a brace of markers in the fourth, while the K. C. was getting one in the first and two in the third, giving way to a two run edge. With a run in the seventh and another in the eighth, the Caseys tied the game momentarily, but the Struthers-Wells outfit scored their final two tallies in the eighth to clinch the decision. Jiggs Bonavita and Windy Morse hit home runs for the winners, while Bob Miller duplicated one for the Caseys. Monday night Recreation Center battles Struthers-Wells and it is anticipated that the City League has now begun to hit its usual pace. Thus, this game should attract considerable attention. Line scores: K. of C. . . 102 000 110—5 9 3 Struthers . . . 111 200 025—7 9 4 Batteries: Baldensperger and Pearce; Denard, Juliano and Seashie, Solomon.

DICKIE HAS TROUBLES
New York, June 12.—(P.)—Bill Dickie of the New York Yankees, who has caught in 100 or more games for 13 straight seasons, may have trouble registering his 14th "century." Benched for the second time by a foot injury, Dickie must work in 70 of the remaining 103 games on the Yankee schedule to reach 100 for 1942.

Mr. Frank went down the steps and around the corner of the house. Joe marched into the dining room.
"Mind if I have a cup of coffee with you?" he asked when he saw Kathleen sitting at her usual place.
"Certainly not," replied Kathleen. Then she seemed to slump. "Call Lizzie—she'll bring it."
"I'll get it myself," said Joe. "No need bothering Lizzie."
When he returned from the kitchen with his cup of coffee, he sat down and gazed at Kathleen. For heaven's sake, stop staring at me like that," Kathleen flared. "Do I look like a freak, or something?"
"No," said Joe. "You just look tired, that's all."
"Well, what if it? You've seen people tired before, haven't you?" Joe shrugged. "Seems to me you're mighty touchy and jumpy. No need taking it out on me—"

Joe looked at her. "You're just because you're worried or something?"
"Worried! Why should I be worried?"
"You tell me."
"I've been rehearsing for hours and hours," said Kathleen. "And I simply want to sit quietly—and think."
"About your part?"
"Certainly. What else is there I could be thinking about?"
"Paul Pennell—perhaps." Joe leaned forward. There was a tense expression upon his face. "Are you falling in love with him?"
"Stop asking infantile questions!"
"And you stop being evasive," said Joe. He forgot Uncle Frank's advice to go easy with Kathleen. He was upset. He was angry. "After all, if you are falling in love with another man, I have a right to know. I don't want it sprung on me out of the blue."
Kathleen softened. "I reckon you're right Joe. Forgive me for being so touchy and jumpy. As you put it, I have had a lot on my mind. She gazed across to where a bowl of roses stood upon the sideboard. "You ask if I'm falling in love with Paul. That's hard to answer. I mean, all that he stands for—his theatrical background, his charm and his poise—all appeal to me. We like the same things, dream the same dreams, and—well, I might fall in love with him."
"In other words," said Joe, "all you need is a little push."
"There you go," said Kathleen. "Acting mean."
Joe ignored the accusation. "Is he falling in love with you?"

Blow For Joe
KATHLEEN looked up. Her gaze was steady as she faced Joe. "Yes, I think he is," she confessed. "You might as well have a direct answer since you asked a point-blank question. He says a lot of things that have double meanings; I mean, he seems to want to declare his love for me, but hesitates."
"Waiting to see whether you ruin his scene or not?"
"That," said Kathleen, "is a downright catty remark."
"Sorry, I sort of feel catty when I discuss Paul Pennell."
Kathleen pushed aside her plate. She rested her elbows upon the table, and looked Joe straight in the eye.
"We might as well have a showdown right here and now, Joe," she said.
"A showdown about what?"
"About us."
"And Paul?"
"Yes—and Paul."
"Okay," agreed Joe. "Only don't let's start throwing things. Too many fragile pieces around."
"This is no time for would-be funny remarks," said Kathleen. "I'm serious, and I want you to be."
"Okay, I'm serious."
Kathleen was thoughtful a moment. "About Paul and me falling in love," she went on presently. "There's no reason why we shouldn't."
"No reason at all," said Joe. "except that you've been loving me for years."
"That," said Kathleen, "was just one of those things. She waved Joe to silence. "Paul has talked to me about having his own stock company some day, and about how nice it would be to have a talented wife for his leading lady."
"Meaning you?"
"Keep quiet!" said Kathleen. "And I agree with him. A man and a woman who are interested in the theatre—as Paul and I are—ought to build up a fine life together."
"Yes'm," said Joe. "Go on—tell me all."
And the more I think about it," continued Kathleen, "the more certain I am that if Paul should ever come to the point of declaring his love, asking me to marry him, I'll give it serious consideration."

Joe looked at her. "You're just because you're worried or something?"
"Worried! Why should I be worried?"
"You tell me."
"I've been rehearsing for hours and hours," said Kathleen. "And I simply want to sit quietly—and think."

DEMARET AND HOGAN LEAD IN INVERNESS

Toledo, O., June 12.—(P.)—Sixteen of the nation's hot-shot professionals aimed to lay down an other birdie barrage today in the second round of the $7,650 eighth annual Inverness best-ball match, with 14 of the play-for-pay boys pursuing those torrid Texans, Jimmy Demaret and Ben Hogan, the 1941 winners.

The Lone Star State lads ripped six strokes off par yesterday, each getting three birdies, to win a four-up decision over Denny Shute and E. J. (Dutch) Harrison. That put the defending champions out front, but they meet the second place duo, Henry Picard and Sam Byrd, today.

Picard and Byrd scored a two-up decision over Herman Keiser and Chandler Harper, the Miami four-ball tourney winners, to get the runner-up spot.

The contestants scored 44 birdies yesterday, but the opening round feature was furnished by Lawson Little, 1934 and 1935 amateur grand slammer, and 1940 National Open king. He scored seven birdies, while Partner Lloyd Mangrum came through with two, for a best ball count of 62, nine under par, and a one-up decision over Byron Nelson and Jimmy Thomson. Nelson scored five birdies.

Chapter 27
About Paul

WHAT are you thinking about?" Ruby asked. "About Laura, said Fred. "She's pretty good at scenes herself." "Are you telling me," said Ruby, "if you'll forgive my slang, 'If Laura could be in the company of Ye Old Barn Drama House, while we're playing 'Goodbye, Honey Chile,' maybe—"

"Fred DeMille, you're up to no good," accused Ruby. She lowered her voice. "You don't happen to know where Laura is now, do you?"

There are ways of finding out, my dear Watson," Fred chuckled. "How about a stroll among the clover and the corn, before we step into the world of make-believe?"

"I'd love it," said Ruby. She drained her coffee cup. Presently she and Fred were walking across a field—hand in hand—and humming a funny little song about the silly cat that ate the canary.

Just Tired?
JOE was sitting upon the porch of the Vaughan house with Uncle Frank when Paul Pennell brought his car to a standstill near the front gate.

"There's Kathleen now," Uncle Frank said. He leaned forward. "She looks a bit worried, too. What do you think?"

"Just tired from rehearsing. I imagine," said Joe. Kathleen told Paul goodbye, waited until he was driving off so that she could wave to him, and then came slowly up the walk.

"Hello," the men answered in unison. "You look all in," said Uncle Frank. "Have a strenuous time of it—being an actress?"

"Yes," answered Kathleen. "But I wish you wouldn't take that tone."
"What tone?"
"As if you were sort of—of making fun of me."

"Good lord, Ducky. I never thought of such a thing!" "That," said Kathleen, "is a downright catty remark."
"Sorry, I sort of feel catty when I discuss Paul Pennell."

Kathleen pushed aside her plate. She rested her elbows upon the table, and looked Joe straight in the eye.

Alsab Injured, Out Of Action for Month

New York, June 12.—(P.)—Those roses that Alsab missed in the Kentucky Derby would be highly appreciated today by Mrs. Albert Sabath's wonder colt, who will be confined to quarters for at least a month with the first serious ailment of his colorful and profitable career.

A blind splint, that bony growth on the side of the splint bone discernible only by X-ray, was discovered yesterday on one of Alsab's forelegs, making Shut Out's principal rival strictly a shut in.

Trainer Sarge Swenke said Alsab carried the injury into the Belmont Stakes last Saturday when he wound up a well-beaten second to Shut Out. Mrs. Payne Whitney's chocolate charger who also topped him in the derby.

Ancient fighting galleys had as many as 16 tiers of oarsmen.

over Byron Nelson and Jimmy Thomson. Nelson scored five birdies.

Little sank birdie putts ranging from four to 40 feet, and on the long ninth his 15-footer for an eagle rimmed the cup. His own score for the 18-hole route was 64, seven under par.

In the other opening match Horton Smith and Chick Harbert finished even with Jimmy Hines and Herman Barron, each with cards of 67.

Chapter 28
The Play Begins

IN the tearoom Joe and Daisy found a table. A colored girl took their orders. It was when their lunch was before them, and they were eating it, that Daisy brought up the subject of why she had been so eager to see Joe.

"It's about my poor dad," she said. "You mean he's drinking again?" said Joe.

Daisy nodded—her eyes flaming with unshed tears. "Say, I'm sorry to hear that," said Joe. "I was hoping he was doing all right, since you hadn't mentioned him in quite awhile."

"I was hoping that, too, Joe, honey," said Daisy. "But a letter from an old neighbor told me he was on a regular rampage. It's awful, getting news like that—just when I'm about to appear in a new play that may put me on easy street."

"Gosh, that is too bad," Joe was all sympathetic. "I wish there was something I could do to help."

"You can," said Daisy. "In what way?"

"In the review of the play," Daisy leaned across the small table, a pleading expression upon her pretty face. "Don't you remember Joe, honey, about me saying if I made good in a Broadway play I could get Daddy into one of those cures?"

"Well, don't you see," Daisy rushed on, "what getting a good notice in 'Goodbye, Honey Chile' means to me?"

"Yes, I do," said Joe. "You still think what I said you carry weight?"

"Of course, Joe, honey—especially if you are good to me in the 'Stage' article you write."

"Okay," he said. "I'll do right by little Daisy. Don't worry. I'll be more than glad to."

"You're such a sweet for words," Joe said. "Let's forget it now," said Joe, embarrassed, seeing that several Linville women were staring at him and Daisy. "Let's talk about something else."

"You're such a modest person," Joe said. "That's what makes me feel so terrible about—well, about Kathleen and Paul."

"Let's forget that, too," said Joe. "All right, if you'd rather not talk about it. But if there's anything I can do to help, please let me know."

"Okay, Daisy. I'll let you know and thanks."

Daisy wanted to linger over their coffee, but Joe told her he had to get back to the office. "I'll be watching for you in the audience tomorrow night," Daisy said, just before they told each other a goodbye.

"I'll be there, never fear!" Joe assured her. "When he got to the Gazette office, he found Fred DeMille waiting for him."

"I stopped by to tell you about some changes in the program for next week," Fred said. He handed Joe a sheet of paper. "Here you are. Though you'd like to know as soon as possible."

"Thanks," said Joe. "Sorry I kept you waiting. But I took Daisy Doran to lunch. The poor kid was all upset."

more than 100 aircraft, the navy declared.

The heaviest losses of the enemy were inflicted in an attack on Salamaua and Lae, New Guinea, March 10 when aircraft from a Pacific fleet task force commanded by vice admiral Wilson Brown joined shore-based planes from Australia to attack the enemy bases.

The second phase of the campaign was the battle of the Coral Sea which started May 4 after reconnaissance had shown concentrations of enemy shipping and aircraft in preparation for an advance into the Solomon and Louisiade islands.

Task force which first participated in this fight was commanded by Rear Admiral Frank J. Fletcher which attacked a part of the enemy armada anchored in and near the harbor of Tulagi, in the Solomon group, and all but annihilated it. The results of this engagement, previously announced by the navy, were sinking or damaging of 12 Jap vessels and destruction of 6 aircraft with a loss of but 3 American craft.

Next day American forces shot down a 4-engine flying boat. On May 7, the navy communicated related, Fletcher's aircraft hit the main body of the Japanese force in the Louisiade archipelago off Merim. A new Japanese aircraft carrier, the Ryūhaku, and a heavy cruiser were sunk, an enemy counter attack was fought off successfully. The enemy lost 25 aircraft compared to 6 for the U. S. force, which consisted of both a land and army planes from Australia.

TOKYO VIEWS THE NEW U. S. RUSSIA ACCORD

Tokyo (From Japanese Broadcasts) June 12.—(P)—Domei quoted "well informed quarters" here today as expressing confidence that the new United States-Russian accord did not deal with the war in the Pacific. A broadcast by the agency said:

"Although no official reports have been received concerning the conference between Vyacheslav Molotov, Russian foreign commissar, and President Roosevelt well-informed quarters here believe that the Molotov-Roosevelt parley did not touch on East Asia issues, limited to problems of sending United States aid to the Soviet and forming a 'second front' in Europe."

Stock Market Dealings Are Rather Weak

New York, June 12.—(P)—The stock market had to undergo further correction of the recent rally today and asserted leaders retreated fractions to more than 2 points.

Mild bidding aided the list at the start but this soon faded and advanced were few and far between near the fourth hour. Dealings were negligible.

War news of the moment provided nothing much in the way of bullish inspiration and the customary lightening of accounts for the week-end tended to soften quotations generally. Cheering, however, was the fact real selling pressure never was in evidence.

Bonds were irregular, as were major commodities.

American Telephone, among stocks, again weakened along with Allied Chemical. Backward most of the session were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors, Chrysler, Great Northern, Du Pont and Anaconda. Ahead now and then were Santa Fe, Western Union, Caterpillar Tractor and Johns-Manville.

Better curb performers included Mead Johnson, American Cyanamid, Midvale, N. J. Zinc and North American Sales Power "A". Lagging inclinations were exhibited by American Gas, Pennrod, Phoenix Securities and St. Regis Paper.

Sugar Rationing Need Not Bar Youth From Making Sweets, Says Mrs. Baldrige Lecturer

Dear Friends in Warren:

"Mother, may we please make some candy?"

That is a familiar appeal, particularly on a rainy week-end. A stormy vacation day and a candy-making bee are synonymous to the younger set, regardless of such problems as war and rationing.

Times and customs are changing rapidly, as the busy homemaker can testify. Every day brings a fresh challenge to her judgment and ingenuity. Once the simple request for permission to make candy brought only the vision of a spattered kitchen, scorched saucepans and a raid on supplies of sugar, an chocolate and nuts. Now that request brings an instant reminder of the necessity of conserving sugar.

How close to rock bottom is the family sugar bowl? Mother is torn between the desire to conserve and the natural instinct to say, "Yes, go ahead, only don't make too much of a mess."

In 1942, even more than in years past, necessity is continuing to mother invention, which is a round-about way of saying that the inventive homemaker is devising ways to make candies with a minimum of sugar—or no sugar at all.

Some of the first-aids to sugar-less candy-making are molasses, syrup, dried fruits, raisins, dry cereal, nuts, honey, semi-sweet chocolate and marshmallows. Shredded coconut plays its part too by contributing some sweetness and interesting texture. Condensed milk is a new sweetener both for candies and tiny cookies, such as macaroons.

Aside from the conservation angle, there are many sound arguments for young and old to whip up a batch of sweetness with some of these ingredients. They are wholesome ingredients, usually found on the pantry shelf, and the will satisfy that craving for "something sweet" at surprisingly low cost.

Remember that molasses, honey and maple syrup all require very low heat. Molasses scorches, and scorched candy is no treat. Do use a generous-sized cooking utensil for candy. Better too deep a saucepan than to have a sticky mass of syrup bubble over on the stove. Some syrup mixtures seem to double in bulk during this puffing and bubbling stage.

If the youngsters are doing the cooking, light the stove for them, regulate the heat and keep a cautious eye on the very young, without seeming to "boss" their fun. Fire is a dangerous plaything; teach children early to respect it, and you may save heartaches later on.

Another point in motherly diplomacy: Put out the utensils and ingredients they are likely to use, with an easy-to-make recipe. See that sharp knives are kept on an out-of-reach shelf.

Here are some recipes you will enjoy. Watch the column for more "rationed" candies.

RAISIN CRUNCH

1 cup seedless raisins
1/2 cup molasses or syrup
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup butter
1/4 cup water
1 teaspoon salt

"Plump" the raisins by covering with boiling water and allowing them to stand a few minutes. Drain well and pat in a clean towel to dry. Boil together molasses, sugar, butter and water until it reaches the "hard crack" stage 290 degrees F. when tested in cold water. Stir constantly to prevent burning. Remove from fire, add salt and raisins and pour into a buttered dish. When cold, break into pieces.

HONEY TAFFY

1 cup sugar
1/2 cup strained honey (exactly)
2 1/2 cup water
1 tablespoon butter

Place the sugar, water and honey in saucepan and simmer, stirring until sugar is dissolved. Continue cooking, stirring occasionally to prevent burning, until 278 degrees F. is reached. (Few drops in cold water should form ball that is hard, but not quite brittle.) Add butter and stir only enough to mix. Pour into buttered dishes and allow to stand until cool enough to handle. (Pull as soon as edges start to stiffen.) Makes 5 dozen pieces.

SUGARLESS MACAROONS

1/2 cup sweetened condensed milk
2 cups shredded cereal flakes

MAPLE BRAN CREAMS

1 1/2 cups maple syrup
1/2 cup light cream
1/4 teaspoon salt

1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon vanilla

Mix all the ingredients together until the cereal is evenly coated with the milk. Drop by teaspoonfuls on a well-greased pan about 1 inch apart. Bake in a moderate oven 350 degrees F. until the macaroons are a delicate brown. Makes 12.
